Healthy Justice for Children and Young People

Addressing the impact of the justice system on the health of children, young people and their families.

This is a priority conference for everyone concerned with developments in the psycho-social care of children and young people who experience the justice system.

Eminent national speakers will present keynotes and join Conference delegates to discuss the healthcare needs of:

- Children of prisoners
- Mandatory sentencing of juveniles
- Indigenous young people
- Juvenile justice
- Children in detention centres

Join us as a delegate or better still, present a paper or poster.

Keynote Speakers

Keynote addresses will be given by the following:

- Dr Sev Ozdowski, Human Rights and Disability Discrimination Commissioner
- Barbara Holborow, OAM, Former Children's Court Magistrate
- Gillian Calvert, The Commissioner, Commission for Children and Young People
- Sharon Tui, Juvenile Justice Officer, Department of Juvenile Justice
- Father Chris Riley, Chief Executive Officer, Youth off the Streets

Abstract Information

Papers - 15 minutes, 5 minutes questions

Posters - 1.2m wide x 1.5m high should describe research data, health and or community services, policies, innovations in the area of justice and children's health care.

Abstracts are to be no longer than 200 words and consist of a title, author names and affiliations and a brief summary of the content of the paper or poster

Both paper and poster presenters are expected to attend the Conference and to field questions about their work.

The deadline for abstracts is Friday, 10th May 2002

Please email your abstract as an attachment file to confact@conferenceaction.com.au in a Microsoft Word format, ensuring that your email is clearly marked "Abstract Submission AWCH". Please clearly mark on your abstract whether it is to be considered for a paper or poster presentation.
