Invitation

Dear Colleagues,

It is my great pleasure once again to invite you to participate in the Divisions of General Practice Network Forum for 2002: "Building Excellence in Primary Health Care". This year we are back in sunny Brisbane, at the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre, from 7-10 November 2002.

The annual ADGP Forum demonstrates the increasing reach and influence of the Divisions' Network in the Australian primary health care sector. At Forum 2001, over 92% of Divisions were in attendance, with delegates representing over 180 different organisations in all. The Trade Exhibition included exhibitors from pharmacy, nursing, IT, universities, rural organisations, insurance, and practice management fields, and was well received by the majority of participants.

This year we are expecting up to 1000 delegates, including General Practitioners and Divisions of General Practice staff, other health professionals, key health organisations, government staff, and other national stakeholders. A number of other organisations are also planning major meetings to coincide with the 2002 Divisions' Forum, including the General Practice Computing Group (GPCG), and the Queensland PHCRED consortium.

The Forum Program will provide opportunities for delegates to hear about and discuss major current and emerging issues in primary health care. Themes that will be highlighted in the concurrent sessions include General Practice Teams, Quality, Information Management, Access and Continuity, and Working with Consumers. Health & Ageing Minister Senator Kay Patterson and Shadow Minister Stephen Smith have been invited to provide keynote addresses, and invitations have also been extended to experienced guest speakers from Australia and overseas. The Forum also incorporates the National Divisions Youth Alliance/Mental Health one-day conference "Youth In Mind".

Divisions Day will again feature workshops for Division Board members, Management and Program Staff on governance and business issues for Divisions, building on the Vision for Divisions Summit in July 2002.

The Trade Exhibition and Divisions Showcase Poster Display will be the largest yet, with 5,000m² of dedicated exhibition space. The Forum also offers a number of fun optional partner and family activities for GPs and their families.

Planning is underway to ensure the annual Gala Dinner lives up to its reputation for excitement, dancing and excellent entertainment.

I look forward to welcoming you to Forum 2002.

Julie Thompson
Chair, Australian Divisions of General Practice Ltd.

Brisbane – The Host City

Brisbane is Australia's largest city in the subtropics, enjoying an enviable climate of hot, bright summers and warm, mild winters that make any time of year a good time to visit. A modern city dotted with parks and lying beneath clear blue skies makes Brisbane a refreshing change from most major capitals.

Brisbane's excellent facilities, luxurious hotels, modern infrastructure plus the attractions of fine food, good shopping and a rich choice of arts and entertainment, combine to create the ideal choice for a convention venue.

During November, Brisbane's temperature ranges from 19-27 degrees.

The Venue

The state-of-the-art Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre (BCEC), is the flagship for a comprehensive range of excellent meeting and exhibition venues in the Brisbane region. Home to Australia's largest plenary hall the BCEC has played host to major international conventions, exhibitions and events since opening in 1995.

Guest Speakers

Senator the Hon Kay Patterson

Minister for Health & Ageing

Since her election to the Senate in 1987, Senator Kay Patterson has been able to bring her background in areas as wide ranging as health, ageing, women, education, youth affairs and small business to bear on her role.

Prior to entering the Senate, Senator Kay Patterson was Principal Lecturer and Chairman of the School of Behavioural Sciences, at Lincoln Institute of Health Sciences. She co-ordinated the development of the Diploma of Gerontology at Lincoln following time as a Kellogg Fellow and Visiting Scholar at the University of Michigan, and as Visiting Fellow at Pennsylvania State University, where she studied gerontology – the study of ageing.

With a long standing involvement with Aged Care and Older Persons, Senator Patterson was appointed by the Prime Minister to chair the 1997 Conference for Older Australians. The Conference was established to prepare the Commonwealth's response to the International Year of Older Persons.

Other Parliamentary appointments have included Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs where she had responsibility for the overseas student program (a large export earner) and as Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Foreign Affairs, working closely with the Minister in the delivery of Australia's Overseas Aid program.

In November 2001, Senator Patterson was appointed to the Cabinet as Minister for Health and Ageing.

Mr Stephen Smith, MP

Shadow Minister for Health & Ageing

Stephen Smith, Federal Member for Perth since 1993, became Shadow Minister for Health and Ageing in November 2001 after the 10 November 2001 Federal election.

He was Shadow Minister for Communications from October 1998 - November 2001, Shadow Minister for Resources & Energy from March 1997 - October 1998 and Shadow Minister for Trade from March 1996 - March 1997.

He was the Chair of the Joint Parliamentary Committee on Corporations & Securities from 1994 to 1996, and has been a member of the Parliamentary Joint Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade and the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Banking, Finance & Public Administration.

Before being elected to the Federal Parliament as Member for Perth, Stephen was Special Adviser to the Prime Minister of Australia and Senior Adviser to the Deputy Prime Minister and Treasurer of Australia.

From 1987 to 1990 he was the State Secretary of the Western Australian Branch of the Australian Labor Party and from 1983 to 1987 he was Principal Private Secretary to the Attorney General of Western Australia.

Stephen is a Barrister and Solicitor by profession. He completed his Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws at the University of Western Australia. Stephen worked as a Barrister and Solicitor in Perth, then completed a Master of Laws at London University, and subsequently lectured and tutored in Law in London.

Stephen was born in Narrogin, Western Australia and spent his early years in Narrogin and Southern Cross. Stephen received his secondary school education at Christian Brothers High School Highgate in Perth.

Ms Helen Owens

Productivity Commissioner

Helen Owens was appointed as a full-time Commissioner to the Productivity Commission in 1998, following 5 years as Commissioner on the Industry Commission. Helen carries special responsibility for matters relating to the social effects of economic adjustment and social welfare service delivery. She holds a Bachelor of Economics (Hons.) and a Master of Economics from Monash University.

She is currently the presiding Commissioner on the Government-commissioned study investigating general practice compliance costs associated with Commonwealth programs.

Helen has directed inquiries into the Pharmaceutical Industry, Medical and Scientific Equipment Industries and Private Health Insurance. She recently presided over an international benchmarking study of pharmaceutical prices and mentored an international review of health policy reforms and a study of supplier-induced demand. Other projects include: private hospitals, public hospital contracting, hospital casemix funding and the cost of alcohol consumption. She directed PC submissions to the Welfare Reform Reference Group and National Review of Pharmacy Regulation. In 2002 she facilitated PC roundtables on health policy and managed competition.

In 1992-93 she was Associate Professor in Health Economics in the National Centre for Health Program Evaluation, Monash University, with responsibility for projects in health program evaluation and health economics.

Dr Julie Thompson

Chair ADGP

Dr Julie Thompson has been a general practitioner for 20 years, currently working in rural Victoria. She has an extensive history of contributing to general practice policy through her representation on national and state GP organisations and committees.

Dr Thompson has broad experience in the development of collaborative models of primary health care in regional and rural Victoria. She has chaired committees that led to the establishment of a community health service in West Gippsland, the regional Gippsland breast screening service and a multidisciplinary youth health clinic in West Gippsland. Until recently, she was president of the West Gippsland Health Care Group which manages acute, community and aged care facilities.

Dr Thompson currently represents Divisions of General Practice nationally as Chair of the Australian Divisions of General Practice Ltd and she is the Medical Director of the Central West Gippsland Division of General Practice. She sits on a number of national committees including the General Practice Representative Group, the General Practice Partnership Advisory Committee, (GPPAC) for which she chairs the Primary Care Standing Committee, and the Australian Pharmaceutical Advisory Committee (APAC).

Youth in Mind: Youth Mental Health Care in General Practice Conference

(7 November 2002)

The Youth in Mind: Youth Mental Health Care in General Practice Conference is a one day conference which will be held on Thursday as part of the 2002 Forum.

The aim of Youth in Mind is to provide the opportunity for the Divisions Network, GPs, Youth Mental Health Stakeholders and Consumers, to come together and discuss the role of General Practice and Divisions in addressing mental health issues affecting young people.

The Youth In Mind conference themes are: Building Partnerships >> Sharing Knowledge >> Supporting Participation.

Areas for discussion will include:

- Challenges and best practice in youth mental health care.
- Divisions of General Practice initiatives promoting positive mental health amongst young people.
- Building partnerships between young people, Youth Mental Health Services, Divisions and General Practice.
- Engaging consumers.

Alternatively, please contact the Concierge at your preferred hotel.

Travel and Accommodation

Corporate Traveller, as the official travel provider for ADGP, is offering a special conference airfare with Qantas of up to 40% discount off full economy fares, excluding taxes. These fares are available to all delegates and accompanying persons travelling to and from Brisbane up to 7 days either side of the conference. Delegates are advised to book early to ensure the widest choice of flights. Date changes are permitted subject to availability. Airfares are fully refundable up to 3 days before travel commences, after which a 25% cancellation fee applies.

For reservations, please fax the attached travel arrangements request form or email the Corporate Traveller agent in your state:

Travel Insurance

Corporate Traveller strongly recommends travel insurance even for travel within Australia. A policy covering cancellation due to illness and other unforeseen circumstances, or additional expense incurred as a result of an airline strike, is available. The policy cannot be issued without a signature and date of birth. Application details are on the attached travel arrangements request form.

Travel Prize

Corporate Traveller is offering a prize of $1,000 towards air travel booked through Corporate Traveller within twelve months of the date of winning. All participants who book a conference group airfare are automatically entered into the draw, to be conducted at the Forum. Queensland delegates not flying to the Forum need only to fax a copy of their registration confirmation letter to Corporate Traveller to be eligible.

Hotel Accommodation

Accommodation has been reserved for delegates at the hotels listed.

Special accommodation options are available for people with disabilities. Delegates requiring these facilities are encouraged to register early and indicate their requirements in the 'special requirements' section of the registration form.

A deposit equal to one night's tariff must accompany registration forms. All delegates are responsible for paying the balance of their account when checking out of the hotel. Personal or company cheques will not be accepted unless prior arrangements have been made directly with the hotel concerned.

Due to hotel requirements all bookings must be received by Friday 20 September 2002. After this date bookings cannot be guaranteed. As the Ashes Cricket Series is being held in Brisbane during this time, and hotel accommodation is at a premium, it is essential to book early to avoid disappointment.

Accommodation Alterations and Cancellations

Alterations to or cancellation of hotel accommodation may be made via Conference Solutions until Friday 20 September 2002. After that date, changes may not be possible. Cancellations less than 14 days from the reserved date may incur a penalty, at the discretion of the hotel.

New accommodation bookings or changes to accommodation bookings made after 20 September 2002 will incur an extra $20 processing fee.
