

Seminar Series

Fatal neglect of children and young people

Time: 9:30am – 12:30pm
Date: Thursday 22 April 2004
Venue: Commission for Children and Young People
 Level 2, 407 Elizabeth Street, Surry Hills.
Cost: $30 paid workers $15 unpaid workers, student or volunteer (includes GST)
 A light lunch will be provided.

The NSW Commission for Children and Young People is hosting a seminar on Fatal Neglect of Children and Young People. This seminar will draw on the findings of the NSW Child Death Review Team's (CDRT) Fatal Assault and Neglect of Children and Young People Report as well as the experience and expertise of two guest speakers. This seminar will be of interest to paediatric health workers, parent groups and people who work in the children's service sector.

The seminar will examine:

- Injury as a result of neglect, including inadequate supervision
- New issues around defining 'neglect' as found by the CDRT research.

Professor Caroline Finch is regarded both nationally and internationally as one of Australia's leading injury epidemiologists. She is the Director of the NSW Injury Risk Management Research Centre at the University of New South Wales and her research has been published in over 100 publications and journals.

Ms Trish Malins is the Manager of Research at the NSW Commission for Children and Young People.
